The following from Bryan's speech at the recent conference of Governors at the white house deserves much consideration in view of the condition in which our country finds itself under Republican rule: "There is no twilight zone between the nation and the state in which exploiting interests can take refuge from both." "The earth belongs to each generation and it is criminal to fetter future generations with perpetual franchises making the multitude servants of the favored faction of the population."

Imported goods are taxed in order that the favored few may sell their products higher in this country, but there is no tax on imported laborers to help the laboring man get more for his labor.

The currency law recently passed by our Republican friends should bury that party so deep that never again will it be heard of except in history.

The government should strictly enforce the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law against the individuals who make up the great trusts.

Our Republican friends are now reaping some of the benefits of a high tariff and the great paper trust is getting the money.

Give us the laws in the interest of all the people. Our Republican friends have given the country class legislation long enough.

No wild eyed populist ever dreamed of a more debased currency than our Republican friends have given this country.

For us to pass laws here that lead government credit to railroad financing schemes, that guarantee, in a measure, railroad securities, good, bad and indifferent, into the currency system of the country, without either discrimination or investigation, could not be justified under any pretext of serving the public interest.—Philadelphia North American (Rep.)

Republican promises of revising the tariff after the election are for the purpose of getting votes only. If they had intended to give the country a law in the interest of the people they would have done so before the election.

A trust does not mind being fined. All it has to do is to make the people pay a little more for its products and then it soon has the fine back together with a big sum for itself for collecting the fine. Send some trust magnates to the pen

Our Republican friends have the support of the great corporations and they deserve it because laws passed by our Republican friends granted the greedy corporations special favors.

Do you favor justice to all and special privileges to none? If so do what you can for the election of Bryan and a Democratic congress.

Labor in America is not protected. The laborer must, however, pay higher for the necessities of life under the Republican tariff system.

Have you noticed anyone asking Republican candidates for State offices whether they are for prohibition or not?

At last Whitecotton has found out that Missouri Democracy did not want him to be Governor.

Plutocracy only is benefitted by a high tariff and the people have to pay that unjust bill.

Our Republican friends have turned the currency of this country over to the gamblers.

The Democracy of the nation needs Senator Stone in the United States Senate.

The greedy corporations do not work for the best interests of America.

A high tariff is of no benefit to a laboring man.

As trust busters Teddy and Hadley are failures.

Boulware-Wood.

A beautiful wedding of last evening was that of Miss Anna May Boulware, daughter of the late E. S. Boulware, and Mr. Lamar Maddox Wood.

The ceremony took place at the Christian church at 8:30 o'clock, the Rev J. N. Bailey officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Just in front of the pulpit were three arches made of feathery greens and studded with white blossoms. From the centre arch hung a wedding bell under which the vows were said. Crimson rambler roses and greens were used profusely throughout the church. Miss Eleanor Scott played the wedding march.

The bride wore a beautiful creation of white marquisette made en princesse and elaborately trimmed in venice point lace. The tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Ida Boulware, as maid of honor and Miss Katherine Henderson as bride's maid. The young ladies looked exceedingly handsome in their white lingerie gowns with val trimmings and carried sheaths of pink roses.

The groom's attendants were Mr. Oney Fink, of Kansas City, as best man and Mr. Roy Meriwether as groomsman.

The bride and bride groom left on the midnight train for a honeymoon trip to Colorado and other western points.

The out of town guests were: James Boulware and wife, Ollie Boulware and wife, of Perry, brothers of the bride; Mrs. Ebb Sutton and Mrs. A. B. Lewis and the Misses Lewis, and Mrs. B. J. Cleaver, of Canton; John Wood and wife, Harry Wood and wife and Miss Winifred Wood of New London; Misses Trem and Zeima Wood, of Lentner, sisters of the groom.

Republican Convention.

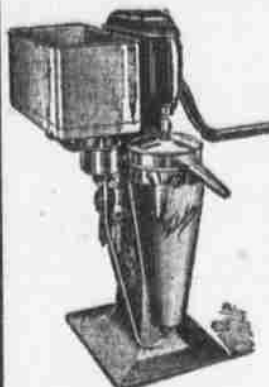

Teddy's convention met on schedule time at Chicago Tuesday. The convention moved with clock like precision and adjourned until noon Wednesday. In the meantime resolutions etc., were being perfected. We go to press too early to give any results. It is predicted that the ticket will be Taft and Dolliver. Many think Roosevelt will be nominated, however.

Thomas M. Boulware is in Brookfield looking after the interests of the Monroe City fair. When Tom throws his energy into a movement it is a go with a big G.

Mrs. Mildred Bowles and daughter, Miss Eulah, of Palmyra, arrived Tuesday to visit their brother and uncle, J. S. Scott and family.

Claude Dudley, of Hannibal, was with Monroe friends Tuesday.

TWENTY DOLLARS FOR TWO

You would not trade twenty dollars worth of butter for two dollars worth of veal. Yet I can name bright farmers, right in this neighborhood, who feed young stock butter fat worth 25 to 35 cents a pound, when oil meal would be just as good for them. If you feed milk set and skimmed by hand, you are leaving one quarter to one half the butter fat in the milk. You are feeding valuable butter to produce cheap calf fat or pig fat.

Gentlemen, that don't pay.

THE SHARPLES TUBULAR

will save that cream—stop that loss—and put you that much ahead. Come and see the Tubular. Let me explain how and why it's the cleanest skimming, lightest running, most durable and easiest handled cream separator made. The Tubular is very simple. I'll be pleased to take it all apart and explain exactly how it will pay for itself one to three times each year in increased dairy profits.

Catalogues and prices sent on request.

Resignation Demanded.

Attorney General Hadley has demanded the resignation of his assistant N. T. Gentry. Ever since Gentry had the temerity to announce himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination as Attorney General without asking the consent of Hadley and other Republican bosses trouble has been brewing. Monday afternoon Gentry was attending to his duties about the supreme court building and when he returned to his desk found the following note: Jefferson City, Mo. June 15, 1908. Mr. N. T. Gentry, City.

Dear Sir:—I hereby request your resignation as assistant attorney general. As I shall be absent from the city for several days you can deliver to Mr. Kennish any papers in your possession relating to the business of the the office Very truly yours,

Herbert S. Hadley,
Attorney General.

Now the battle is on. Gentry has many warm personal friends all over Missouri and it is now up to them to say whether they will submit to boss rule or demand fair play.

Gentry has formally resigned. Following is his letter of resignation:

Hon. Herbert S. Hadley,
Attorney General.

Jefferson City, Mo.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday asking me to resign as assistant attorney general, and in reply herewith tender my resignation.

Three years ago and over you appointed me one of your assistants without any solicitation on my part, and I accepted the position at a financial sacrifice. I have at all times done my best to make an honest and faithful officer. During the past three years I have, at your request, looked after many cases in the various circuit courts of our state, and have attended to and briefed two hundred and fifty-two cases in the supreme court of our state, and have been associated with you in representing the state in three cases in the supreme court of the United States. In two of said cases you sent me to Washington City, where I made the only argument in behalf of the state, and in both of which the state was successful. One of said cases was the H. J. Cantwell case, which involved the constitutionality of the law prohibiting the working of men under ground and in mines more than eight hours a day. At the request of the secretary of state, state auditor, state treasurer, superintendent of insurance and state board of health, I have represented them in circuit courts in many important cases. As I have never heard any complaint either from you or from the other state officers or from the circuits before whom I have appeared or from the people of the state I have a right to assume that my conduct and my efforts have been satisfactory. Yours very truly,

N. T. Gentry.

"So-called Democrats" is a favorite expression of the governor. When he managed Meriwether's campaign in St. Louis he was out-and-out against the Democratic ticket. What kind of a Democrat is that?—Fulton Telegraph.
